SIX THINGS TO KNOW FOR THURSDAY, NOV. 3

Here are six things to know for Thursday, Nov. 3. Get information about upcoming budget forums, how eighth graders can apply to high school programs, how to provide your input on the 2023-2024 school calendar, the STEAM showcase this weekend, something for your child to do on the upcoming school day off, reminders, and a special surprise from The Washington Commanders Charitable Foundation.

1. Provide Your Input on the 2023–2024 School Calendar

Please share your input for next year's school calendar. This quick survey seeks to gauge the community's opinions on the calendar scenarios developed for the 2023–2024 school year. Staff will use your feedback to develop a final recommendation to be presented at the Board of Education meeting on Tuesday, Dec. 6. Let your voice be heard and share your input by Monday, Nov. 30.
